The Youth's Companion for 1909.

The amount of good reading given to subscribers to the Youth's Companion during the year is indicated by the following summary of contents for 1908: 30 star articles contributed by men and women of wide distinction in public life, in science, in business, in a score of professions.

250 capital stories including six serial stories; humorous stories; stories of adventure, character, heroism.

1,000 up-to-date notes on current events, recent discoveries in the world of science and nature, important matters in politics and government.

2,000 one-minute stories, inimitable domestic sketches, anecdotes, bits of humor, and selected miscellany. The weekly health article, the weekly woman's article, timely editorials, etc.

A full announcement of the new volume will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address on request.

The new subscriber for 1909 who at once sends $1.75 for the new volume (adding 50 cents for extra postage if he lives in Canada) will receive free all the remaining issues for 1908, including the double holiday numbers; also The Companion's new calendar for 1909, "In Grandmother's Garden," lithographed in 12 colors. The Youth's Companion, 144 Berkeley street, Boston, Mass.
